WORLD NAKED BIKE RIDE MELBOURNE 2011

PRESS RELEASE

The World Naked Bike Ride is an annual clothing optional protest for Peace, Sustainability and the rights of cyclists to use the road safely.

Along with 7 other Australian towns and cities, this year Melbourne will be participating in what is a huge global movement.

Last year Melbourne was Australia's biggest ride with over 130 participants.

The ride is not a race and goes at an easy recreational pace with riders decorating their bodies with paint, slogans and bits of costume. Many riders paint their bodies with peace signs, hearts and flowers.

The "dress code" for the ride is "As Bare As You Dare". Nakedness is not compulsory.

Fantastic fun! The World Naked Bike Ride is the biggest naked protest event in the world.

Riding in the WNBR will give you a natural high and a feeling of joy, liberation and freedom that will amaze you.
